Everything Goes Somewhere is Sky Cries Mary's 15th album and 5th studio release from Trail Records. With six original songs, written and co-produced by Bennett Ireland, Roderick Wolgamott and Jack Endino, the album has been described as experimental and complex.

Electronic drums, layered with acoustic drumming, ambient sound, lyric poetry, and soulful grooves combine to create something harkening both the Sky Cries Mary of a previous era and a future Sky Cries Mary that you haven't heard yet.
